

4th Generation District Energy Network Development Kinlochleven Case Study

Many small communities in Scotland suffer from fuel poverty and poor air quality. In order to tackle these issues, our project aims to provide sustainable heat for communities through a 4th generation district heating network based on water source heat pumps powered by local renewable sources.

Our Approach:

Alexandros Giannakis
alex90giannakis@gmail.com

Antonios Lemonias
antonislemon@gmail.com

Fausto Longo
faustolongob@gmail.com

Ndomupe Bizabani
dombizzabani@live.com

Ramon Prieto Trigo
prietotrigo@gmail.com